I'm currently in a local care home and virtually blind. I can however still reminisce on the many inspiring times with colleagues over my 38 years with our various Companies - Thank you all for your friendship over the years. Please look after our little planet.

Ian Butt

Sorry not to be with my former colleagues from Electro-Optics and Airadio today. I have often missed an interesting walk around churches in some part of inner or outer London because the event has clashed with our Reunion. I want to enjoy this year's walk because, who knows, it might be my last opportunity, so please enjoy your Reunion, I'll be thinking of you.

Ken Earney

I usually attend the Re-union and am disappointed not to be able to come this year! I wish all attending an enjoyable event.
